EXAMS - INFORMATION SHEET

Please read the information prior to completing the enclosed application form. It is here to help you. This sheet should be detached from the form and retained by the applicant.

Exam Boards

We are happy to enter students in the following boards, ABRSM, Rock-school, Trinity. Please make it clear on your form which board you are entering.

Examination Accompaniment (for non-pianists)

Unless you are taking a piano or guitar exam, you will need an accompanist. Please ensure that you have indicated on the examination entry form how much accompaniment time you require and your preferred practise times on a Saturday. A timetable will be produced, once all requests have been received.

NB: All fees must be paid to Huntingdonshire Music School and accompaniment pieces handed in at time of exam entry.

Music

Candidates are expected to provide their own sheet music for the examination including music for the accompanist when required.

Candidates are reminded that to make copies of music is a breach of the 1988 Copyright Act.

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES MUST PHOTOCOPIED MUSIC BE USED IN THE EXAMINATION.

Aural

Your instrumental teacher should be assisting you with aural as part of your examination preparation. CD's and telephone apps are also available from the ABRSM to assist with this.

Examination Timetable

The exam timetable is usually available two weeks before the exam date(s).

We are not able to request specific times or dates for exams. We can however enter candidates in the order that we would like them to be examined. This order is not guaranteed by the board however.

Please note that even when you have been allocated a time for your exam that timings can change. For example, ABRSM rules state that if one person drops out all other times should be moved forwards and that changes can happen at short notice.

Late Entries

Huntingdonshire Music School cannot accept entries handed in after the closing date.

Certificates

Mark sheets will be available at reception on a Saturday once received from the board. If you do not attend on a Saturday it will be passed on via your teacher. Certificates will be presented to candidates at the next end of term concert.
